Dear John,

Well, our siding problems are over. Our only regret is that we did not go with Shore Siding originally. We, unfortunately, took the low bid and paid the price with shoddy workmanship, delays and finally legal action. We still have not recovered our losses.

The good news is that Shore Siding removed the siding improperly installed and gave us a first class job. It is beautiful. I would be very remiss if I did not comment on the crew that worked at my house. Nick, and those who helped him were extraordinary. They were kind, willing to answer questions and extremely helpful in getting our house back together. I found Nick to be a wonderful craftsman and everything he did was perfect. He completed his work on time and was very neat and careful with all his work. You are very fortunate to have such a fine young man working for you. If all your crews are as good as the one that worked on my house, you are a blessed man.

Two years ago Shore Siding installed a roof on my house and this year you did the siding. Somewhere down the road I will be replacing my decks and I will certainly go to Shore Siding for your skilled work.

Again, thank you for everything, especially for Nick and his crew. They were exceptional.

Sincerely,

Richard P. Stoll
